Prestige Outdoor Lighting; Tastefully Simple; 31 Gifts, Sunset Slush; SSF Designs; Totally Chic; WindowZ; Paws Ability; Busarin's Jewelry; Turtle Program;

August 15 is the date vendors have to apply for booth space.

Each member gave an update of the businesses each asked for sponsorships.

Since this is the 10th anniversary of this festival the Committee continues to look for new ideas that will make this a more special event. One of the suggestions was to hold a BBQ supper the night before. Bev Williams said she approached Fibber McGees asking if they could provide a BBQ dinner such as the one they put on for the Veteran's Memorial Dedication. They could for $10.00 per plates, the committee decided they could sell the BBQ for $15.00 per plate. Upon further discussion the committee thought that if we were to do this we also needed entertainment which is an additional expense and decided it was not prudent to pursue this idea.

Other ideas the Committee is contemplating are:

- Obstacle Course set up by the Fire Department for children (Karen Joseph)

- Bike Race (Kathy Duckworth)

- Putting Green (Lois McCellan)

- Wags and Whiskers Dog Walk/Parade

- Boating Safety Demonstration (Mary Hughes)

Entertainer's Insurance

Karen Joseph reported that she reviewed the contract the town proposes the entertainers enter into is actually for vendors who enter into a contractual agreement for on-going services with the town. The entertainers are willing to sign a waiver holding the town harmless if the entertainer is injured. Karen will discuss this with Susan Parker in the near future.

Photo Contest

The rules for the Contest are finalized. Jean will send the rules and deadlines to area photography clubs. The photo submission dates will be the week of September 5.

Other Business

Discussion regarding the pros and cons of having rack cards instead of posters was held. That will be decided at the next meeting.

SAS discussed having a tent at the Waterfront Market in September to sell T-shirts and spikers.

The next meeting will be Monday, April 25 at 10:00 am at Town Hall.
